SEPTEMBER 26 PASCO AIR SHOW AND HANGAR PARTY

You can arrive late morning and stay until the show is over. The Lawson's and Nancy Westermeyer are hosting the annual potluck at the Lawson's hangar at the Pasco Airport.

Please bring tableware, chairs and folding tables if you have them. Drinks, popcorn and ice cream will be furnished. Bring your favorite potluck and salad and rolls. I heard about a new casserole called the five can casserole. It consists of the first five cans out of the cupboard with enough cheddar to hold it together.

Go out N. Fourth to Pasco Airport, turn at Astley's Transmission to road behind hangars, turn right and continue until you see Lawson's hangar. His Packard will be visible.

BENTON FRANKLIN PARADE REPORT

The weather cleared just intime for the parade where YOCC's group of 11 cars acquired the Queen's Award.

YOCC drew # 29 out of 150 entrants so they were at the Yale's for a Kentucky Fried Chicken picnic shortly after 12:30 and were joined by other club members that had not gone through the parade, bringing the picnic participants to 55.

The group enjoyed the visiting cars on display. The youngsters playing, a tour through the pole barn and the house under construction and the meeting conducted by President Martha Shreve.

The group sends a special hello to Florence Haner. Also it was so good to see Helen Milewski out to the picnic.

Peggy Yale

Editor's Note: Jack Yale sold his Auburn Sedan to Buzz O'Conner.
Also thank you Jack and Peggy for a great picnic and hosting the group.
